(April 15, 2005- TROY)- The City of Troy is putting the finishing touches on Earth Day 2005, which is set to take place on April 30th, 2005 with a one day festival sponsored by Rensselaer County in Riverfront Park the following day.

The City held its final Earth Day meeting last Wednesday, and the list of projects continues to grow. Anyone wishing to add a project to the list needs to contact Jeff Buell at 270-4554 by April 21, 2004. Any groups that have yet to place an order with the City for T-shirts need to do so by April 19th.

Ace Hardware and former City Councilman Wayne Foy have again donated 100 pairs of gloves to the City of Troy for Earth Day. The City is also proud to announce that the Alamo, located in South Troy across from the Rensselaer County Jail, will be open for trash disposal on Earth Day from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Renovation material and toxic waste are not allowed at the Alamo, and there will be a $2 charge for tires.

Flyers for Earth Day can also be obtained at the Mayor's Office or by calling 270-4554.

"The planning for Earth Day continues to move along swiftly, and I'm sure that the hard work put in by both City workers and volunteers on April 30th will have a significant payoff in terms of the way the City looks," Mayor Harry J Tutunjian said. "Everyone should get involved in Earth Day and show the pride you have in our great City."
